

Traveling to Burundi can be quite a complicated process from almost anywhere in the world.

Flights

We recommend flying via London or Brussels. Search for flights from British Airways, Kenya Airways, Ethiopian Airlines, Sky Scanner, and Kayak.

Return tickets purchased in advance can be as little as $1,200 for a round-trip and $2,400 for a premium economy round-trip.

Traveling to Burundi from the United States is long and tiring. We suggest that you allow at least a day to rest and adjust on arrival.

Visas & Vaccinations

For US citizens, visas are required before departure. Other countries are similar. Please check on the Burundian embassy website for your country.

This can be a long process it should be completed as early as possible. Amazi Water can assist you as needed.

A yellow fever vaccination certificate is required.

Documentation

If coming from the US: Official website: http://www.burundiembassydc-usa.org/crbst_7.html

Basic steps:

1. Please contact our Texas based office manager: tracy@amaziwater.org FIRST
2. Read the website above
3. Make sure to ask for an invitation letter
4. Scan all documents needed and put in a packet.

Other countries are similar. Please go to your local embassy's website for details.

Health

Ask your local public health or travel clinic to advise on vaccinations (including mandatory yellow fever and typhoid).

Burundi is a malaria area. Take anti-malarial medication as prescribed by your doctor or travel clinic. Bring mosquito repellent with you and anti-itch cream. Bring long-sleeve, full-length, cool clothing for extra protection from mosquitos.

Hand and face wipes and sanitizer are handy.

Accommodation

We recommend the Kiriri Garden Hotel <https://kiririgardenhotel.com/> Kings Conference centre <https://www.kccburundi.org> and the Garden Hotel www.Gardenhotel.bi

For additional travel information click here [insert a link to Travel Guide] to read and download our Amazi Water Travel Guide